In the Land of the Wadawurrung People

Dear families,

Do you remember dressing up for Book Week when you were at school? As we celebrate Book Week across the Country this week, I am happy to inform you that Book Week remains alive and well in our schools today.

As the first educators of your children, you all know the importance of reading with your children every day. Regular practice helps develop strong literacy skills as well as an interest in the wider world. One thing that we sometimes forget is the importance of modelling reading to our children. When our children see their parents reading by choice on a regular basis, they can also come to understand the value of reading for pleasure. Escaping into an adventure, enjoying a romance or solving a mystery, reading for pleasure really can't be underrated. Even just ten or fifteen minutes daily can be enough to engender a love of reading for the rest of our lives. Not a bad habit to develop at all!

As we highlight great literature at school this week, let's take the opportunity to switch off the Television, put away the technology and enjoy the shared experience of jumping into a good story together. Who knows where it might lead?

God bless,

Mark Hogbin

Pick Up & Drop off Times

Please note that our school gates open at 8.15am each morning. Children should not be left unsupervised in front of the school before that time. You can ensure your child's safety by not bringing them to school before 8.15am when the first supervision commences, and the school gates are opened.

Police Presence at School

Some families have been concerned about a police presence at our school last week. While the police were in Fortune Street, they did not attend our school. We might sometimes think of Fortune Street as our own school driveway since it is a no through road, but it is a public road, and the police will monitor this area just as they do all other areas across Ballarat.

St. Francis Xavier Primary School is a Child Safe School called to action through Gospel values and Mercy tradition. Through the mission of Jesus within the Mercy tradition, we are called to action in pursuing fullness of life for all.

We're skipping through the term!

Jump Rope for Heart is well underway and it's great to see so many children out in the playground skipping with smiles on their faces. SFX has already raised $3491. An amazing effort!

Our Jump Off Day will come around quickly so keep on practicing those tricks! And don't forget to share your online fundraising page with friends and family to raise money for a great cause!

THIS WEEK'S GOSPEL- Sunday Aug 18, 2024 Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time (Year B) Gospel: John 6:51-58

I am that bread from heaven! Everyone who eats it will live forever. My flesh is the life-giving bread I give to the people of this world. They started arguing with each other and asked, "How can he give us his flesh to eat?" Jesus answered: I tell you for certain that you won't live unless you eat the flesh and drink the blood of the Son of Man. But if you do eat my flesh and drink my blood, you will have eternal life, and I will raise you to life on the last day. My flesh is the true food, and my blood is the true drink. If you eat my flesh and drink my blood, you are one with me, and I am one with you. The living Father sent me, and I have life because of him. Now everyone who eats my flesh will live because of me. The bread that comes down from heaven isn't like what your ancestors ate. They died, but whoever eats this bread will live forever. (Gospel passage taken from CEV)

Child Safe Standard 4: Families and communities are informed and involved in promoting child safety and wellbeing.

Book Week is one of my most beloved weeks of the year! A whole week committed to enjoying books and celebrating the love of reading.

It's not only the enjoyment of sharing books and stories as well as dressing up as your favourite book character on Friday - to me it always brings back such great memories of dressing up for my own Book Week Parades at primary school and being read to as a little one.

One of my earliest memories is of my beautiful mum reading me and helping me to collect the whole Beatrix Potter 'Peter Rabbit' series. I still cannot help but smile when I think of mischievous Peter as he gets into the garden of Mr McGregor.

In turn, reading books as often as possible is a time of important connection with my two year old nephew and my Foundation class. It is a tradition that we all do together and it has valued meaning for us.

Another fond memory from my primary school years were the 'Wicked' Books by Paul Jennings and Morris Gleitzman. Have a read of the blurb below, it may bring back some amazing memories for you all as well!

Something very weird is happening to Dawn and Rory. And it's not just their new step-family. Slurping slobberers want to suck their bones out. Strange steel sheep want to smash them to pieces. Giant frogs want to crunch them up. Cruel killer creepers want to squeeze the life out of them. Their parents can't help them. Dawn and Rory are on their own. It's wild. It's wacky. It's WICKED!

Sending cheers your way and happy reading!

PREPARING FOR THE ASSEMBLY OF THE DIOCESE OF BALLARAT

During the week many gathered at OLHC Wendouree in preparation for the Diocesan Assembly that will focus on Leadership and Governance in a Synodal Church.

Parishioners, priests, Religious, St John of God Healthcarers, staff from Catholic schools, CatholicCare, Diocesan Commissions and Councils gathered from Ararat, Ballarat, Ballarat East, Ballarat North, Beaufort, Bungaree, Daylesford, Donald, Gordon, Redan and Wendouree.

Our parish of Ballarat East and Buninyong will now be invited to nominate two delegates to send to the Diocesan Assembly that will be held at Federation University on Friday evening November 15th and Saturday November 16th. Prior to the Assembly, delegates from parishes, clergy, religious, Diocesan Commissions, Boards and Councils, Catholic education, CatholicCare, Catholic organizations and agencies within the Diocese will be required to engage in some preparation (some will be online).

Our Parish Pastoral Council will discern the two delegates who will attend the Diocesan Assembly. Parishioners are invited to nominate other parishioners to be considered to be one of the parish delegates. Please forward your nomination to the Parish Office with the name of the person being nominated, qualities that you see in them that make them a suitable parish delegate and include your name as the parishioner nominating them.

Pope Francis is providing leadership for a synodal Church and the Plenary Council of the Australian Church has recognised that the practice of synodality requires greater transparency in decision making, with the appropriate participation of all the baptised, giving witness to the equal dignity of women and men. The Plenary Council has affirmed a culture of synodality for parishes and dioceses, where healthy and fruitful relationships between clergy and laity "recognise different but complementary charisms and opportunities for co-responsibility", and desire "consultative and collaborative approaches to governance at all levels in the Church." The emphasis on listening and discernment for a synodal Church reveals how the People of God may be more centred on Christ, build healthy and respectful relationships amongst ourselves, and be effective missionary disciples in the Spirit.

It's time to save the date now and let people know that we will recognise these anniversaries on Saturday December 14th with the 6.00pm Vigil Mass followed by a b.y.o. picnic in the church grounds. We continue to receive great photos and stories of days gone by and we thank the many parishioners who have provided them, but ask you to keep looking and thinking about what you could contribute to recognise 150 years of our parish. Whether from Ballarat East, Buninyong or Clarendon we are keen to gather as many stories and photos as we can to share with those who attend this function, but we cannot do it without your help. Watch this space for more information over coming weeks.

The Banquet of Life

Gospel reflection by Veronica Lawson RSM
Twentieth Sunday in Ordinary Time

In this week's gospel passage, we continue our reflection on John 6. John's gospel was written towards the end of the first century. The Bread of Life discourse probably reflects the interpretation of the gospel writer rather than the actual words of Jesus. This is important for making sense of statements in the discourse that would seem to be out of place from the lips of Jesus during his lifetime. The hearers of these words have lived and worshipped as followers of Jesus for some decades. They have gathered each week for the breaking of the bread and reflected deeply on the mystery of the Word made flesh, the mystery of life in Christ.

If there were eucharistic overtones subtly present in last week's gospel passage (John 6:41-51), they become quite overt as the Johannine Jesus responds to yet another objection from his opponents in this week's gospel.

Like the Israelites of old in the desert wanderings, these people are more than ready to grumble: "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" (6:52).

Jesus does not really respond to the question "How....?" Rather, he goes on to tell those who want to hear that "life" for them depends on their eating his flesh and drinking his blood. The Johannine Jesus uses the present as well as the future tense.

It is well to remember that one never enjoys a banquet alone. It is always shared with others who accept the same invitation.

The life they experience in eating his flesh and drinking his blood is a present reality for them as well as a promise of on-going life. For the Israelites, life was in the blood: blood poured out of a person or of an animal meant life poured out. Clearly "life" is being used in John 6 for the quality of life the believers have come to experience through their incorporation into and participation in the community of the baptised, the sort of life that is not destroyed by death.

Life in the community unites the believers intimately with the risen Christ as well as with the God of Israel whom the Johannine Jesus generally consistently refers to as "Father".

The first reading for today reminds us that other metaphors such as Wisdom were available to those of Jewish heritage for imaging the divine.

Wisdom is a female way of imaging the divine. In John's discourse, Jesus becomes Wisdom extending an invitation to the banquet of life. We keep receiving and accepting that invitation. It is well to remember that one never enjoys a banquet alone. It is always shared with others who accept the same invitation. In the strength of the sustenance we receive in this banquet, we are also invited to bring a quality of life to all beings that struggle to exist, the human and the other-than-human. The potential for this is as boundless as the generosity of our God "enfleshed" in Jesus of Nazareth.
